U. S. AID FOR SMALL FARMER LEE'S PLEDGE

Georgia Representative, Member of Agricultural Committee, Deeply Interested

CONGRESS PARTY REACHES KAUAI ON SCHEDULE TIME

Trip From Hawaii Enlivened By Music and Games—Mill Whistles Along Hamakua Coast Give Guests Noisy Farewell—Garden Island Is Entertaining Hospitably

By HALLETT E. ABEND
(Staff Correspondent with the Congressional Party.—By Mutual Wireless.)

NAWILIWILI, Kauai, May 13.—Substantial aid to diversified industry in Hawaii through federal agencies is promised to Hawaii through the wide-awake activity and deep interest of Representative Gordon Lee of Georgia, who is a member of the house committee on agriculture and who, on his trip with the congressional party, is studying problems of local industry. Congressman Lee has heard with much interest of the difficulties under which "small farmers" and those who have tried to develop diversified industry, have labored and he intends to aid in working out its problems. He says that the agriculture committee will approve for the territory anything asked for in the line of appropriations to fight the Mediterranean fruit fly and other insect pests, the boll-worm, which has ruined island cotton prospects, or anything else needed to aid the development of diversified farming.

Mr. Lee declares there is nothing to hinder the islands being the greatest fruit producing section of the world. He will do everything possible to help make the fruit products fit to pass the quarantine requirements on the Pacific Coast.

Fun on Trip to Kauai.
The special steamer Mauna Kea made the trip on schedule time yesterday and last night from Hilo, arriving here at 10 o'clock this morning, to be met by the leaders of the Garden Island. They are making an impression of fine hospitality even on top of the entertainments of Maui and Hawaii.

Part of the trip of the Mauna Kea from Hilo was rough and many of the passengers were seasick. On Wednesday music and card-playing helped to pass the time and a number of the passengers found the occasion good for getting some sleep.

Probably the Mauna Kea never carried a more notable party than during the trip from Hilo. "Uncle Joe" Cannon, Jack London, the author, Delegate Kuhio and Senator Hardwick of Georgia wooed the goddess of fortune at one table. Farewell to Hawaii.

The island of Hawaii gave the party a picturesque farewell. As the Mauna Kea slipped down the Hamakua coast all of the sugar mills saluted the

VIOLATORS OF REVENUE LAWS TO BE HUNTED

Acting on orders from Collector of Internal Revenue Haley, Chief of Staff Ralph Johnstone of the revenue staff and assistants have started a thorough canvass of the city in search of contraband goods and minor violators of the laws relating to internal revenues. Through ignorance principally, cigar dealers have given the internal revenue agents much difficulty in the past by violating the laws, such as exposing cigars or cigarettes in other than original packages, selling cigars out of boxes not having covers attached or throwing away empty cigar boxes without destroying the revenue stamps.

Mr. Haley asks, through the Star-Bulletin, that those not familiar with the laws governing revenues inquire at the local revenue office where he and his assistants will gladly explain

CONGRESSMEN IN STRONG SUPPORT OF U. S. PROTEST

Senators and Representatives Believe Time Has Come For National Stand

WILSON'S NOTE TO GERMANY IS FAVORED

Sinking of Lusitania and Other Incidents Held to Warrant Extreme Measures

"We stand behind President Wilson. The violation of the rights of neutrals has been carried to a point where not only protests to Germany are necessary but also an emphatic stand to back up the protests in case of 'eventualities' arising."

Such is the general expression of the senators and representatives who remained in Honolulu while the main party is touring the other islands. All the senators and congressmen who have any public expression to make favor peace, but declare that America has reached the limit of international insult without voicing a stern protest to Germany regarding the protection of American lives and shipping. If any of the distinguished visitors criticize President Wilson's note, cabled to Germany, the outline of which was published in the Star-Bulletin yesterday, they do not make any statement to that effect.

The Star-Bulletin today asked such of the senators and representatives as could be reached if they would comment upon the American attitude as expressed in the note to Germany. Their expressions are as follows: SENATOR CUMMINS of Iowa: "I like the tone of Wilson's note. Of course I don't know the full details, but from what I read in the newspapers I think it will bear the emphatic protest we should make against what I call an indefensible violation of international rules."

SENATOR SAULSBURY of Delaware: "The note of President Wilson to Germany, handed by the sinking of the Lusitania shows the determination on the part of the United States to uphold the rights of neutrals. The matter has reached a

A valuation of $300,000,000 is placed on Rockefeller's holdings in stocks and bonds.

SERBIA APPEALS FOR WAR RELIEF TO FAR HAWAII

Woman President of Serbian Red Cross Tells of Country's Stricken Condition

SICK AND WOUNDED DYING OF NEGLECT

Medicine, Bandages Nurses, as Well as Food and Clothing are Asked

An appeal from Serbia to Hawaii, for relief in what is declared to be the direst need of all the fighting countries, has come to the Star-Bulletin from Mme. Mabel S. Grouitch, president of the Serbian Red Cross. Writing from London, where funds are collected to be used in purchasing supplies sorely needed, Mme. Grouitch says:

"The correspondent of the Standard, writing from Serbia, says: 'The most pitiful and heartrending aspect of these scenes was presented by the long procession of Serbian survivors, consisting of old men, women and children, bringing in a heavy toll of mutilated human beings. At Valivio, the nearest town to the field of battle, large masses of Serbian and Austrian wounded kept pouring in incessantly; 10,000 had already arrived. All had to be examined, all had to have their wounds dressed. . . . In the name of gallant little Serbia—in the name of a humane, pitiful people, I make urgent appeal to the Red Cross to send a portion of their staff here, there are thousands to be saved.'"

"At a later period the correspondent of the London Times writes: 'The town itself has been transformed into one huge camp of wounded. All adaptable buildings, cafes, halls, schoolrooms, have been rapidly commandeered for hospitals. Sometimes there are beds, more often rudely made mattresses, for little Serbia, worn out by too constant wars, is ill equipped to meet the onslaught of a great power. In the streets—what misery. The lame, the halt, the maimed. Men with damaged legs or shattered hands, men with bandaged heads, men being carried from operating shops to cafe floor, men with body wounds lying on stretchers. All with ragged, blood-bespattered remnants of what once were uniforms. There is no patriotic fund in Serbia. When one leaves the organized hospital and wanders one's way through the crowd of wounded who block the pavements, and enters a lower class cafe, the appalling tragedy of it all fills the spectator with a sense of hopelessness. There, like cattle upon their beds of straw, lie sufferers from all manners of hurt. They remain

F-4 SALVAGE IS GOING SLOWLY; DIVING DELAYED

Tug Navajo Now Engaged In Attempt to Work Line Under Bow

The tug Navajo is engaged today in an attempt to "saw" off one of the heavy lines that were placed round the bow of the sunken submarine several days ago. Attempts to place a line round the stern have been unsuccessful, owing to the position of the F-4 on the sea floor, and the plan of working one of the bow lines off is being tried. If this is successful, the stern can be raised sufficiently to drag a second line under.

There will be no more diving for some days, in all probability. Of the four divers who originally came to Honolulu with the cruiser Maryland, only one is now in shape to reach excess sive depths. He is Frank Crilly, the lightest and smallest, man of the quartet. Four navy surgeons on duty here now have made a careful examination of the divers, and have reported on their condition to the Maryland's commander. According to the medico's report, Loughman has been invalided back to the mainland, Dreilishak has developed a slight trouble with his heart, which makes it inadvisable for him to go down for some time, and Nielsen is out of condition from his experience of three days ago, when he was forced to cut his way out of the entangling coils of a reeling line that he had taken to the sea bottom. Crilly appears to be in perfect condition.

Where Sultan Goes to Pray That Allies May Not Capture Him

Famous mosque of St. Sophia, Constantinople. Here the Sultan has been going to pray to Allah every Friday but since the Allies have landed on Gallipoli peninsula and his city is in an uproar, he is reported to have increased the frequency of his prayers. Constantinople has been the scene of several riots lately, according to the reports, and the historic square shown above has been guarded by double details of soldiers so that the Sultan might continue his earnest petitions.

Socialists to Deplore all War

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless]
CHICAGO, Ill., May 13.—A national convention of Socialists has been called to meet in Chicago during the week of June 11, 1916. The Socialist committee has adopted a peace program "to avert disaster," which declares that no crime, however appalling or revolting, justifies the slaughter of nations and the devastation of the country.

ELBERT HUBBARD IN JEST FORETOLD HIS OWN DEATH

Elbert Hubbard jokingly prophesied his own death on the Lusitania before sailing for England, according to New York despatches on the day the Cunard liner sailed from America.

This and other incidents of the Lusitania sailing are told in a news despatch from New York as follows:

NEW YORK, May 1.—Despite the advertised warning of the German embassy that passengers traveling on ships of the Allies would run the risk of being blown up in midocean, the Lusitania of the Cunard line sailed today with more passengers and cargo than she has carried since the beginning of the war. Reports that passengers had received telegrams stating that the Lusitania would be torpedoed were circulated by longshoremen. Investigation proved the reports to be untrue. Many prominent Americans were among the first cabin passengers and all declared unlimited confidence in the liner and agreed with Charles P. Sumner, general manager of the line, that the big vessel's speed was the best guarantee against submarine attack.

Excitement All Ashore.
Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Hubbard, Alfred G. Vanderbilt, who expects to be in London for several weeks; D. A. Thomas, Lady Mackworth, Charles Frohman and Charles Klein did not seem to be apprehensive and suggested there was more excitement over the German embassy's message ashore than on board.

QUEEN GREETES CONGRESS PARTY

Washington Place presented a rare and picturesque scene this morning between the hours of 10:30 and noon. Queen Liliuokalani received members of the congressional party who were in Honolulu today, and with the queenly courtesy for which she is justly famed extended "aloha" to the distinguished visitors. The ladies of the party were especially desirous of meeting the queen, whom they had known principally as the author of "Aloha oe."

Queen Liliuokalani was attended by Mrs. C. S. Holloway, Mrs. C. P. Iauka and Mrs. J. A. Dominis. Col. C. P. Iauka introduced the senators and representatives to the queen and acted as master of ceremonies. The Hawaiian band played for the queen and her guests. The visitors went away charmed with the graciousness of Queen Liliuokalani. Several of the senators and congressmen had met the queen on former occasions. Senator Smoot is on intimate terms

12,500-TON SEA FIGHTER IS TORPEDOED; CHURCHILL FEARS MORE THAN 500 MEN ARE LOST

ATTACK ON TURKEY PROVES MORE COSTLY—INDICATIONS LAND CAMPAIGN OF ALLIES STEADILY WINNING—TWO TURKISH GUNBOATS AND TRANSPORT SUNK BY SUBMARINE—MORE ANTI-GERMAN DEMONSTRATIONS IN LONDON—PARIS REPORTS THAT ALLIES HAVE WON SIGNAL VICTORIES ON WEST FRONT

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless]

LONDON, England, May 13.—The British battleship Goliath, of 12,500 tons and built seventeen years ago, has been torpedoed in the Dardanelles naval campaign against the Turkish forts.

The Goliath, which is one of the Canopus class, was a member of the Allied fleet engaged in bombarding the Turkish forts while the land forces were pushing up the Gallipoli peninsula for a land attack on Constantinople.

Twenty officers and 160 men have been rescued. The Goliath had a complement of 750, and Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, fears that more than 500 men perished when the vessel sank.

British Submarine Threads Straits, Sinks Turkish Vessels in Marmora

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless]

LONDON, England, May 13.—The British submarine E-4 has threaded the Dardanelles, reached the sea of Marmora and sunk two Turkish gunboats and a Turkish transport.

Indications are that the land campaign of the Allies on the peninsula of Gallipoli is being crowned with success. The Allies have been throwing troops across the peninsula, cutting the defenders in two. The bombardment of the forts by the big guns of the attacking fleet has been resumed and a lively exchange of shells is in progress.

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless]

LONDON, England, May 13.—Premier Asquith announced today that the government has reached a decision to repatriate aliens of military age from German countries, women and children in certain cases, owing to the growth of anti-German feeling.

South Africans, Incensed Against Germany, Wrecks Mercantile Houses

Many have been completely wrecked. The establishments assailed by the rioters include ten warehouses, three hotels, 20 shops and the Liederkranz club.

The Gundelfinger company's establishment was set afire. The loss to the merchants is estimated at more than $1,000,000.
